THE THEATERS

A pretty Japanese play entitled "A Tragedy of the Orient," is showing today at the Orpheum. Miss Tosia Aoki and a company made up of Japanese players have done very well in this two-reel, with a story which has a distinctively Oriental flavor. "The Cowboys' Chicken Dinner," a Reliance comedy, and "Nancy's Husband," a high class Beauty comedy, complete the bill.
Marguerite Fischer and Harry Pollard are seen in this one.

Tomorrow's show will be extra good, including a thrilling three-part Warner feature, "The Broken Barrier," and a side-splitting two-reel Keystone comedy, "The Knockout."

Walter Sembach, a German tenor, has been engaged for the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The Bijou program today includes the fourth episode of "The Perils of Pauline," a three-part Edison Civil war drama, and a Pathe Weekly.
The scenes of the Edison war drama are laid in Tennessee, and a naval battle in Mobile Bay is pictured. The Pauline stunts are very interesting.
The Saturday program will include Broncho Billy in a thrilling play.
Four other reels of fine dramas and comedies will complete the program.

The Liebler Company will produce a dramatization of Eleanor H. Porter's novel, "Polyanna."

Large audiences are greeting Panther, the Indian maid, at the Odeon theater, where she is giving a very interesting vaudeville act. She appears in a beautiful white Indian gown presented to her by the Sioux Indians of the Southwest while she was appearing in vaudeville in that section.

The screen offerings today are "A Girl of the Cafes," a Lubin drama;
"This is Life," an Essanay comedy.

CRITERION

THE SEASON'S FAVORITE

Idle Silver Collar

M. A. NUSBAUM.

and "Who is Who," a Selig comedy.
The Beauty Mark musical comedy company of seven girls and five men are booked for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Eddie Dillon is now engaged in producing a series of comedy pictures from Paul West's famous "Bill" stories at the Majestic and Reliance Mutual studios. "Tammany" Young, who had quite a varied career before joining the Reliance and Majestic Company, is featured in the production. Young was copy boy on the New York World at the time West, as one of the editors, began to write his famous "Bill" stories.
The character of Bill was drawn by West from Young. When arrangements were completed to produce "Bill" "Tammany" was selected to play the lead.

Cyril Maude will begin another American tour in "Grumpy," starting in November in Boston.

"Wanted $22,000" was produced this week at Atlantic City. It tells the story of an old bank president who borrowed money without taking the bank authorities into his confidence. At the suggestion of a girl the old man's son writes a play and wins enough money to settle all difficulties. The part of the father and son were acted by Russ Whytal and Ernest Glendenning, and Desmond Kelley played the heroine.

Will West has been engaged for the comedian's part with Hazel Dawn in "The Debutante."

Rene Detling has been engaged by Henry W. Savage for the prima donna role in "Sari" for next season.

Joan Sawyer, the dancer, will revive the old dances, including a minuet and a Varsouvienne dance of the fifteenth century in her program of modern dances.

Carroll McComas has been engaged by John C. Fisher for the leading feminine role in "What Happened at 22," by Paul Wilstach. Miss McComas has been in vaudeville in a whistling act.

The New York Review says that the "drama of purpose" is now in disfavor in London. People there are tiring of the play of the sociological or humanitarian order, and want light and amusing entertainment.

Alice Gale is going to appear in vaudeville in London.

John Flood has been engaged to play an important part in "Drugged" with the company supporting John Mason in that play.

"Balaban," a new female impersonator, has made a big hit in New York. It is said he makes a beautiful woman and he has a soprano voice well developed musically.

"The Talk of the Town" is a refined comedy in which Harry Pollard plays the titular role. As a "Beauty" subject it maintains the standard of refined comedy established and will be well received. Excellent photographic quality and the splendid work of Margarita Fischer make this a very attractive feature.

James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady," has completed a new play, which William Harris will produce next season.

Pauline Frederick will play before the motion picture camera in Rome in a film production of Hall Caine's "The Eternal City."

ONE TIME COPPER
KING IS VERY ILL

F. A. Heinze,
F. Augustus Heinze, who made millions in Montana copper mines and lost them in New York bank and stock deals, is dangerously ill in New York. Abdominal hemorrhages and liver troubles are declared to be responsible for his condition.

It would be practically impossible to persuade any wearer of "Coffman Made" garments that any other tailor could produce so good.

Once "Coffman Made" always Coffman made. Why not the best for you when it costs no more.
